

Collaborative Family Law Group of San Diego
Membership Application

Bylaws 2.02 Qualifications General or Honorary membership in the Association shall be by invitation from the Association or sponsorship by an existing member in good standing followed by the recommendation of the membership committee and a vote of the membership at a regular membership meeting. General members are expected to attend and participate in the general meetings and other activities of the Association. In order to become and remain a general member of the Association an individual shall: (1) Complete the initial two day “Collaborative Divorce” training program presented by Collaborative Training Conferences or an equivalent program approved by a vote of the membership at a regular membership meeting. (2) Attend and participate in at least 50% of the continuing education programs presented or sanctioned by the Association every year. (3) Attend and participate in at least 50% of the general meetings of the Association (4) Join and maintain a membership in the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals. (5) Maintain malpractice or errors and omission insurance, with coverage terms and amounts to be specified from time to time by the Association. (6) Meet the minimum standards as set from time to time by the members of each discipline.

Name: _____

Profession: _____

Address: _____

Email Address: _____

Telephone: _____ Fax Number: _____

I have completed an approved Collaborative Divorce training program.

I have met one of the following criteria:

- (a) Mental Health Professional – Licensed, and 5 years experience in my field since becoming licensed or equivalent experience as determined by the other mental health members of the Association.
- (b) Attorney – Licensed to practice law in California, and at least 5 years experience since becoming licensed during which time my primary focus has been family law, or equivalent experience as determined by the other attorney members of the Association.
- (c) Financial Specialist – Certified either as a divorce planner, financial planner or a public account, and at least 5 years experience in my field since becoming certified or equivalent experience as determined by the other financial advisor members of the Association.

I have read and agree to be bound by the guidelines and membership criteria as specified in the By-Laws of the Collaborative Family Law Group of San Diego

Signature

Date

New Member Dues - $200 initiation fee plus a pro rated share of the annual dues at the time of acceptance into CFLGSD (currently $295/year) plus annual IACP dues (current discounted group rate $100).